For Immediate Release

Two Young Women
Discover a Haven
in the Most Dangerous of Worlds

A country at war and divided in its very heart, America of the Civil War was a place frought with peril, especially for those living in the South. A Day to Pick Your Own Cotton, Book 2 in the bestselling SHENANDOAH SISTERS series, takes readers to the front lines of this era and dares to search for hope in the midst of the darkness.

MAYME AND KATIE HAVE COME FROM VERY DIFFERENT WORLDS AND HAVE SURVIVED TERRIBLE TRAGEDY. BUT NOW GREATER TRIALS AWAIT THEM.

Having formed a growing and important friendship, these two young women are more determined than ever to keep Rosewood Plantation operating rather than lose it to looting soldiers or greedy opportunists. They also feel a unique responsibility to use their home as a sanctuary for those seeking freedom and set adrift by the hardness of war.

A Day to Pick Your Own Cotton* by Michael Phillips
Trade Paperback; $12.99; ISBN 0-7642-2701-7
Hardcover; $17.99; ISBN 0-7642-2706-8

About the Author

Michael Phillips has written three dozen books, most of them novels, with sales totaling over four million copies. He and his wife have been CBA retailers for over thirty years and make their home in California.

Contact: Teresa Fogarty

Phone 952-829-2765
Fax 952-996-1393
teresa.fogarty@bethanyhouse.com

Available at your local bookstore or by calling (800) 877-2665

BETHANYHOUSE
11400 Hampshire Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55438
www.bethanyhouse.com