Discover and Embrace the Extravagant, Unconditional Love of the Father

- Foreword from John Eldredge
- Neal Lozano is a well-respected speaker and teacher, and his previous book, Unbound, continues to sell well
- A moving message that speaks to the deepest longings in our souls

How is it that so many believers get stuck when it comes to entering into a relationship with God the Father? Rather than basking in the Father's endless love, compassion, and delight, we seem to hesitate, like orphaned children unsure of a place to call home.

Neal Lozano breaks through the obstacles that keep us from growing in this pivotal relationship. He shatters fear and estrangement in his joyful exploration of Jesus's promise to show us his Father—and ours. It is a heartwarming journey, starting with the universal experience of loss and ending in the Father's welcoming arms as dearly loved children.

EXCERPT

Imagine a city filled with the thick, almost tangible atmosphere of peace enabling people to think for themselves, to dream and to celebrate life. Imagine a place where hope is real and actually measurable, with the prevailing attitude of "Anything is possible." Imagine a city where prosperity touches every citizen—a place where there is not only no lack, but where there is creativity, beauty, and stunning design everywhere you look. Prosperity takes on purpose as God's nature is evident in what people have created. Imagine government that makes you proud to be a citizen. Can you imagine the sense of pride in seeing dignitaries from around the world coming to visit your leader, who is serving the best interests of the community?

This was the reality in Jerusalem for a season during Solomon's reign.

Jerusalem was possibly the most transformed city in all of history, and Israel the most transformed nation. And it all started in the heart of the man Solomon, who was trained by his father, David, to value the presence of God as his greatest gift. All the benefits and blessings that came to the city were the result of the influence of that one gift.

Such a transformed culture seems too good to be true in this lifetime. Yet Jerusalem testifies that it is, in fact, possible for those who believe. Even more, the transformation of Jerusalem was accomplished under the Old Covenant, at a time when the people of God did not have access to the fullness of the Holy Spirit living in and through them, as is available for us today. How much more possible, then, is this kind of transformation in our day? And how do we help achieve it?

Exciting New Teaching from Bestselling Author and Bethel Church Leader Bill Johnson

- Bill Johnson and Bethel Church are at the epicenter of a thriving global movement
- Gives readers hands-on ways to create eternal impact and significance in the here and now
- Shows that healing and miracles are only the beginning of what God wants to unleash in the world

Two realities are evident in today's broken world: Our culture is in desperate need, and our God is a miracle-working God. How do believers answer the world's cries for help in a way that exhibits God's heart of compassion?

According to bestselling author Bill Johnson, we simply embrace two additional realities: God's wisdom and his power. With biblical insight and extensive experience of seeing God's hand at work, Johnson offers keys to how believers can have the greatest impact on society. When we understand the long-term strategy of God's wisdom and the immediacy of his miracle-working power, we can create eternal impact and significance in the here and now, whether in our own lives and communities or in the farthest reaches of the world.

Exchange Fear and Doubt for a Life of Radical Possibility

- Dawkins is a popular, powerful international and intergenerational speaker
- An action-oriented guide to removing the limits we place on ourselves and God
- Reveals the essential truth that sets believers free to enter the unimaginable realm of life in God

Since the Garden, our true identities have been hijacked—stolen by Satan. We’ve fallen prey to the subtle, believable lies of the enemy that we are inadequate, powerless, ineffective. As a result, God’s purposes for our lives are short-circuited.

Robby Dawkins, a most engaging storyteller, shows how the enemy has shattered our understanding that we are made in the image and likeness of God. When we grasp the truth of who we are in Christ, we can walk with him into the realm of power reserved for each of God’s children. We can do the things Jesus commanded us to do—heal the sick, rout demons, deliver the captives. The thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy. Don’t let him. Reclaim your true identity and live a life of purpose, passion, and power.
