Life offers us a series of trials and hardships--from the trivial to the tragic. How we react to these tribulations depends greatly on what we take into them.

When we face trials with anxiety, fear, or bitterness, we will find that they only change us for the worse. But when we carry along God's promises of provision, protection, and peace, our life's trials can change us for the better.

In Guided by God's Promises, beloved writer Elisabeth Elliot shows you how to prepare yourself for the hard times by clinging to the comfort and assurance of God's provision and love.

HEALING WHAT'S HIDDEN*Practical Steps to Overcoming TraumaEvan and Jenny Owens*Biblical Perspective and Practical Help for Moving beyond Trauma

- Authors have been featured on Newsmax, Pure Flix, and Lifeway podcasts, as well as numerous news and radio programs

There is hope after trauma. Some of us can recall the exact moment our lives changed forever. The horrific accident. The miscarriage. The day they walked out. The moment our innocence was taken. Others of us can't remember a time when our lives weren't marked by trauma, abuse, or neglect. What happened to you was wrong and it hurt you, but it doesn't have to define you. You may be wounded, but you're not broken. You can overcome trauma and embrace a brighter future.

Over the last decade, husband and wife team Evan and Jenny Owens have helped thousands of people overcome the trials, tragedies, and traumas of their past, and in this book, they show you how you can too. With empathy and insight, Healing What's Hidden offers a practical, step-by-step process to help you acknowledge your trauma, heal your invisible wounds, and reclaim your future so you can live beyond the anxiety, depression, and shame trauma leaves behind. Others are already experiencing healing. Now it's your turn.

VOICES OF LAMENT

Reflections on Brokenness and Hope in a World Longing for Justice

Natasha Sistrunk Robinson, Ed.

Reflect on the Holy Tension of Lament and Hope

- Contributors are well-connected Women of Color who have a combined social media reach of over 250,000
- Natasha Sistrunk Robinson is a sought-after speaker, consultant, and leadership, diversity, and mentoring coach
- Essays, poems, and liturgies lead readers through Psalm 37

Perhaps nowhere in Scripture do we get as full a picture of the heights and depths of the human experience as in the psalms. These outpourings of emotion never shy away from the darkest moments of life, and yet they also point toward the light--toward the God in whom we place our hope.

Inspired by Psalm 37, Voices of Lament is a powerful collection of reflections from Christian Women of Color on themes of injustice, heartache, and deep suffering. Their prayers, poems, and testimonies lay bare the experiences of the oppressed even as they draw us into deeper intimacy with God and a more fulsome understanding of each other.

Perfect for anyone who longs to better express and understand the beauty of lament held in holy tension with hope and love, this extraordinary collection presents both well-known and new voices of color from various ethnic and people groups and different generations putting God's faithfulness on full and glorious display.

- Author's writing has been featured by Christianity Today, (in)courage, and Charlotte Magazine

- Foreword by Morgan Harper Nichols

Perhaps in no other way do we more vibrantly reflect our creator than with our creativity. Whether through music, writing, baking, painting, posting on social media, dancing, or any other form of artistic expression within our grasp, we were created to create. Yet, there are times we may be unsure about our art, times when our creating and making doesn't feel possible or purposeful or practical.

Rachel Marie Kang wants you to know that your art is not peripheral to life--it is at the very heart of why you exist and what you have to offer to yourself and to the world. In Let There Be Art, she gives you permission to embrace the peace, pleasure, and purpose inherent in your art and in the process of making it. This passionate, creative, and cathartic journey invites you to create truthfully out of the broken and beautiful pieces of your life, as well as offer your heart and your art in hopes of helping a hurting world.
