YONDER COME DAY

Exploring the Collective Witness of the Formerly Enslaved

Jasmine L. Holmes

A Compelling Picture of American History Woven from First-Person Accounts of the Formerly Enslaved

- Author has written for Christianity Today and Relevant and been featured on popular podcasts like Here's Where It Gets Interesting with Sharon McMahon and That Sounds Fun with Annie F. Downs
- Author has a growing and highly engaged social media following of 50,000
- Author interweaves narrative nonfiction and firsthand accounts of slavery to bring history to life in an accessible way

As our nation has experienced a renewal of reckoning with the reality of slavery in our past and the continued struggle for equality and liberation in the present, many previously untold stories have come to light. But not every story. Some histories remain shrouded, waiting for someone to uncover them and make them known. Incredibly, some of them have been hiding in plain sight for decades.

Yonder Come Day brings these hidden histories into the light in an unconventional yet powerful way. Drawing from the recorded interviews of more than 3,000 formerly enslaved people from across the South collected in the 1930s, Jasmine L. Holmes creates a compelling "collective memoir" unlike anything you've read. The story follows Little One, a composite character who guides the modern-day reader through the experience of slavery. As she grows from Little One to Lonely One to Lovely One to Grandmama, she exposes both harsh truths and an irrepressible spirit, helping us better understand the love, resilience, and faithfulness necessary to survive the evils of our nation's original sin.

Teachers, historians, and anyone doing the work of reconciliation will find that Yonder Come Day is the vital resource they didn't even know they were missing.

60 Devotions to Keep a Foster Parent Grounded in God's Word

- Author has a social media reach of more than 100,000
- Author is a sought-after speaker, appearing over a dozen times yearly at events for foster and adoptive parents
- Author is the creator of the largest online foster parent support group

Though the words "foster care" are not in the Bible, the act of caring for the vulnerable is clearly important to God. Perhaps nowhere is that kind of tender attention and care for the vulnerable more evident than in the act of fostering a child. But as foster parents pour themselves into the children God has called them to care for, they may find themselves feeling emptied, in need of being refreshed and reinvigorated for the day to come.

With 60 devotions written especially for foster parents by a foster parent, Filled offers a special boost of spiritual energy and encouragement particular to the unique joys and challenges faced by those who open their homes and hearts to kids in need of love. Each reading includes Scripture, a real-life anecdote from the author's experience as a foster parent, an explanation of the biblical text, and suggestions for continued reading.

An Inspiring Devotional from the Founder of Hobby Lobby

- Leadership Not by the Book has sold more than 90,000 copies
- David Green has appeared on Fox & Friends, The 700 Club, and other national outlets
- 90 devotions to challenge and encourage business leaders as they seek God's guidance

If we desire to honor God in all we do, we need to be in his Book every day. Through the Bible, God offers us so much more wisdom for living and leading--and for every domain of life--than anything this world can ever give us.

That's why Hobby Lobby founder and CEO David Green wrote The Leader's Devotional. By sharing the biblical principles that are the foundation of his life and leadership, he challenges and encourages each of us to seek God's guidance for our lives, for our families, and for our organizations.

With Scripture, reflection questions, and a short prayer, each devotional hits on a topic that is close to the heart. Do you want to live and work according to God's plans, hear what he's saying to you, and put it into practice? Then this is the devotional for you.

Dr. Andrew J. Bauman is the founder and director of the Christian Counseling Center: For Sexual Health & Trauma (CCC) and a licensed mental health counselor. His mission is to use his unique position to elevate women's voices and expose a disease that desperately needs to be removed from the church's body.

SAFE CHURCH

How to Guard against Sexism and Abuse in Christian Communities

Dr. Andrew J. Bauman

Listening to Women about How to Make Church More Inclusive

- Provides practical solutions to create a more equitable church environment based on interviews and survey data from nearly 3,000 women
- Author is a regular conference speaker who has also appeared on more than 100 radio shows and popular podcasts such as Bare Marriage, The Allender Center Podcast, and The Steve Brown Show
- "This book will haunt you--and it should. It is the right book at the right time."--Sheila Wray Gregoire, author of The Great Sex Rescue and founder of Bare Marriage

If the past few years have taught us anything, it's that by and large the church has failed women. From sexual abuse scandals involving high-profile pastors, to decades-long systemic cover-ups of sexual harassment and mistreatment, to harmful theology that has driven women to leave the church and find community elsewhere, it's clear that something is broken. If we want to fix it, it's time we start listening.

Drawing on new, firsthand research and in-depth interviews, Safe Church allows women to voice the pain they have suffered at the hands of insecure leaders who were often unaware of how their words, actions, and attitudes were harming their sisters in Christ. With practical advice on how to create more equity and less sexism and abuse in the church, this honest look at how misogyny masquerades as biblical truth is a vital resource for pastors, church leaders, and anyone who wants to make a meaningful difference in their own Christian community.

RECLAIMING QUIET

Cultivating a Life of Holy Attention

Sarah Clarkson

Replace Constant Activity with God-Ordained Rhythms of Stillness

- Author is the daughter of Clay and Sally Clarkson and a regular guest on the At Home with Sally Clarkson podcast, which has exceeded 4 million downloads
- Author is three-time winner of the Frederick Buechner Creative Writing Prize
- Will appeal to readers of Wendell Berry, Lauren Winner, and Tish Harrison Warren

In a noisy world, the cultivation of quiet may feel like a luxury you do not have. But it is also vital to your spiritual life. When we spend our days distracted by social media, news, entertainment, and jam-packed schedules, we make it nearly impossible to experience the kind of thought life that allows us to grow into the people God created us to be--to become more and more like Jesus. We're too busy and distracted to notice the people and situations God has placed in our path for our spiritual benefit.

Reclaiming Quiet is your invitation to discover the profound joy of resisting our cultural obsession with distraction and instead cultivating a life of holy attention. With practical strategies to add stillness, listening, and rest into your daily rhythms, this book shows you how to

- care for your inner life
- listen to the voice of God in the everyday
- stay grounded in the now while looking with hope and expectation to the future

You're more than a viewer, a user, or a consumer. You are a child of God, a recipient of his grace, a disciple who is seeking to follow him more closely. It's time to reclaim all that. It's time to seek out some holy quiet.

- Author is the pastor of Crossroads Church in Cincinnati and has a social media following of nearly 700,000
- 60 devotions that each include a key verse, a prayer, and a challenge

What you practice is what you'll perfect. This is true in sports, in art, and in the primal pursuit of becoming a man.

You don't become a man when you turn 18, buy your first home, or achieve financial independence. All men live by the five marks, and all boys avoid them.

Men have a vision.

Men take a minority position.

Men are team players.

Men work.

Men are protectors.

A companion to the bestselling book of the same name, The Five Marks of a Man Devotional isn't a sit-and-get devotional. It's a get-up-and-go guide to building the most transcendent, exhilarating, and impactful life possible. Created to get you working toward the goal, each reading contains Scripture, a short thought, a prayer, and two challenges designed to build muscle in living life by the marks.

Because it's not what you think but what you do that gives your life power. It's time to get moving.
