Through biblical and modern-day stories, he discusses different types of relational disappointment and heartache, and answers questions such as Why should I trust again? and How can I ever really forgive?

EXCERPT

My dad, until his death, was the number one encourager in my life. Both of my parents, in fact, were constantly telling me that I could do anything. In reality, I wasn't a great student, but that didn't seem to matter to them. They were consistently uplifting, and that focus has become a part of my lifestyle. Beni and I both postured ourselves to be a continuous source of strength and encouragement to our children. We wanted to make sure that we always gave them much more positive feedback than negative. We focused on highlighting the things that they were doing right and on the things for which each child had a gift or a particular grace. We focused on their future.

Jesus called Peter a rock when he was like a broken reed. Peter was unstable and unreliable, but Jesus spoke to him according to what he was becoming. The Lord showed up and called Gideon a mighty man of war when he was hiding in fear from the enemy. Likewise, as parents, we need a picture from the Lord for our children. We don't do that so we can control their destiny, but so we can fuel them into all that is in their hearts. We have the great privilege of fanning the flames for the things that God has already put inside of them. We get to speak to our children as though they were already what they're becoming.

How to Experience the Life God Wants You to Have

- From Gary Wilkerson, head of World Challenge and son of bestselling author and pastor David Wilkerson
- An eye-opening, biblical message that re-defines God's favor
- Encourages broken Christians toward a loving Father who wants to shower them with his favor—with forgiveness, grace, restoration, blessings, empowerment, and faith—and show his favor to all

One of the great privileges we have as Christians is finding favor from the Lord. Yet our understanding of “favor” can be off. We are sometimes told it’s all about us—that God gave us that house, that car, that job so we can have all we need. But his provision doesn’t stop with us.

In this fascinating, empowering book, Gary Wilkerson, pastor and president of World Challenge, paints a bigger, brighter, and more biblical picture of what God’s favor is. He shows how our loving Father showers his abundant resources upon us—things like forgiveness, restoration, peace, joy, power, and authority—not only to bless us with a favored, happy life, but for us to joyfully demonstrate this favor to others, whether they are friends, family, or strangers on the street. Because God’s favor is not meant to end with us—it is meant to show the beauty of his unearned grace to a hurting, unbelieving world.

An Eye-Opening Explanation of God’s Plan for His People in the Last Days

- Two acclaimed scholars and authors refute popular misconceptions about the end times, including a pre-tribulation rapture
- An accessible, personal read full of surprising biblical insights
- Offers hope for dark times

Despite the popular theology of our day, Christians should not expect to get out of experiencing the tribulation or the end times. Nowhere in the Bible does the Lord promise us this, say Michael Brown and Craig Keener, two leading, acclaimed Bible scholars. In fact, they say, Jesus promises us tribulation in this world.

Yet this is no reason to fear. In this fascinating, accessible, and personal book, Brown and Keener walk you through what the Bible really says about the rapture, the tribulation, and the end times. What they find will leave you full of hope. God’s wrath is not poured out on His people, and He will shield us from it—as he shielded Israel in Egypt during the ten plagues. So instead of taking comfort in what God hasn’t promised, take comfort in the words of Jesus: He has overcome the world, and we live in his victory.

We were created to reflect something or Someone. What we behold, we reflect. The more we behold the Lord, the more we look like him—and the more we see his glory released into our lives and the lives of those around us.

The glory of God is irresistible. Yet seeking to sense his presence or experience his glory for its own sake misses the point. His glory is the natural outpouring of a deep relationship with the Holy Spirit. In these pages, author and speaker Jennifer Eivaz shows how you can enter into more intimate fellowship with the Spirit of God, experience miraculous encounters, and begin to see more miracles, more deliverances, and more lives dramatically changed. Here is the inspiration you need to step into the supernatural and follow God’s leading—and carry his glory to the darkest places and see his kingdom come.

Fresh, Dynamic Vision on Kingdom Living in a Broken World

- Author is the director of the School of Kingdom Ministry, with locations in over 60 churches across the globe
- “I know Putty personally and can vouch that this book is based not on theory, but on practice.”—Randy Clark on Live Like Jesus
- Gives tangible, practical ways to live a kingdom-oriented life

In Matthew 13, Jesus tells the parable of a man who stumbles across a treasure hidden in a field. He goes home, sells everything he has, and buys that field to own that treasure. This is what the kingdom of heaven is, Jesus says—a treasure worth everything.

But the truth is, for most of us, our enthusiasm is often wrapped more deeply around a football team or the latest TV show than what God is doing through us. Lacking a purpose calling to the deepest parts of us, we numb ourselves. In this eye-opening, empowering book, pastor and author Putty Putman shows that there is a kingdom designed to provide your life with such compelling purpose that you will reorient your whole life around it. Here is your invitation into a life of significance, adventure, and wonder far beyond what you have let yourself dare to dream.
