Hope and Encouragement for Grandparents Raising Their Grandchildren

- The Legacy Coalition is the nation's largest grandparenting ministry, with rapidly growing support in churches across the country
- Speakers at the Coalition's conferences include Chuck Swindoll, Gary Chapman, Josh McDowell, Crawford Loritts, Tim Kimmel, and many others
- The Coalition resources and encourages churches to develop grandparenting ministries within their congregations

You thought you were done raising children. But now, unexpectedly, your child isn't able to raise their own kids, so you step up to fill in the gap. But what comes next? Do you have the energy to get the job done? Are you equipped in this ever-changing world? And will you be able to help your grandchildren draw close to the God you love?

In Raising Your Grandchildren, you'll discover the practical tools as well as the encouragement you need to find hope in Christ and strength for the journey. With wisdom and compassion, this book focuses on common emotional and spiritual challenges, and along the way readers will hear true stories from other grandparents going down this road themselves.

No one expects to be a grandparent raising a grandchild, and it can be a daunting task. But take courage—it can also be a blessing. Let this book be your guide to finding hope and joy in the journey.

Resource to Help Brand-New Christians Thrive in Their Faith

- Helps new believers focus on the essentials of the Christian life
- Great for church giveaways at Christmas, Easter, and baptisms
- Author's books have been endorsed by Christine Caine, John Ortberg, Lee Strobel, Brad Lomenick, Andy Stanley, Jud Wilhite, and John Burke

New Christians are full of questions. What now? How do I become more like Jesus? Where do I start making changes in my life? What does God want from me?

This little book has the answers, based on Micah 6:8 (NIV): "What does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God." Pastor Rusty George explains that Christianity doesn't have to be complicated. In this one verse God has revealed the simple, practical path to following Jesus.

This small book is the perfect tool for churches or individuals to give to new Christians.

THE BEAUTY OF AN UNCLUTTERED SOUL

CARLA GASSER
Illustrated by Vivian Kammel

FILTER YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES THROUGH JOY

Love and joy are more interconnected than you first may realize. The placement of these attributes together is no coincidence. Read what Charles Spurgeon (one of the most influential ministers of the nineteenth century) says about love and joy:

Perhaps love is put first not only because it is a right moral virtue . . . but because it is a comprehensive virtue and contains all the rest. All that commandments mean are that in one word, and that word is love. All the fruits of the Spirit are contained in that one root . . . Godlike gifts of love. See that you abound in love. . . . The gift of faith is the first point, how can you succeed in the second? . . . As for joy, if it be not the first product of the Spirit of God, it is next to the last, and we may be sure that the order in which it is placed . . . is meant to be instructive. The fruit of the Spirit is love first, as a complement of the rest, then joy arising out of it.

Love covers all, and out of love arises joy. This discipline makes a list of some based on what we learned about love in the first chapter. When we immerse everything in love, giving up our pride and selfishness, the overflow of that love is joy. Practicing unconditional love as the Bible teaches is a daily choice; joy is the spontaneous expression of our willingness to sacrifice for others. Do you know the command repeated most often in the Bible, to "Rejoice"? Rejoicing means not only having joy but also filling through the lens of joy.

While our culture is cluttered with concepts, such as joy and enjoyment. Rather than joyful, we say we are happy through an unusual source; calling back The Life-Changing, the unique Art of Living, the also people to take possession, one by one, by action. Does this spark joy for

Let God’s Spirit Transform You from the Inside Out

- Applies the language of cleansing and decluttering to cultivating the fruit of the Spirit
- Gorgeous, original watercolors decorate almost every page
- Author is an accomplished Bible-study leader in her community

When the world seems chaotic, extreme, and out of control, we sometimes find ourselves desiring to order and simplify our personal lives, hoping to gain a sense of peace and purpose. Scroll through social media, read bestselling self-help books, or watch any DIY television show, and you will discover there are plenty of ways to transform your home, your body, and your life.

But how do we care for our souls?

The Bible teaches us how to apply the principles of self-care and minimalism to the clutter within as well. Using the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22–23) as a guide, this nine-week devotional will help you cleanse your soul from the inside out by allowing God’s Spirit to come and produce the soul qualities you’re longing for.

Purge your past.

Shake out your worry.

Open your heart.

Cleanse your mind.

Declutter your attitudes.

We all want more love, joy, peace, patience, and self-control. Let this book be your guide to the abundant life you’ve always wanted.

Listening: The Secret to Connecting Heart to Heart with Your Child

- Meets a high felt need of parents: “I want to connect better with my kids.”
- Each chapter includes age-specific advice—from preschool through high school
- This is the author’s third book on listening, and she is a go-to expert on the topic

Good parenting depends on good communication. The problem is, we parents tend to over-talk. Not only is this ineffective, it discourages children from sharing what’s on their hearts. In this immensely practical book, communications expert Becky Harling shares the best listening practices to transform your family’s relationships and set your children up for success, including how to

- help them express their feelings in healthy ways
- listen to affirm their strengths
- model how to navigate conflict with grace
- listen to God, knowing that he “bends down to listen” to us (Psalm 116:2 NLT)

Whether your son or daughter is in preschool, grade school, or high school, intentional listening will help them feel heard, valued, and empowered to find their unique voice. The practices you put into place now will set a foundation for strong relationships into adulthood.

Understand Your Teen’s Sexual Environment for Better Communication

- Strong felt need for any parent of teenagers in today’s rapidly changing world
- Written by a psychologist specializing in teen issues/sexuality and by a theologian
- Authors are connected to Youth Specialties and the Orange Conference

When Dr. Robinson asked her freshman psychology students what today’s parents need to know about teens and sex, they said parents do not have a realistic view of the world their children live in. A healthy sexual identity requires more than just a list of what not to do. In today’s culture of sexual identity confusion, ubiquitous pornography, and #MeToo, teenagers need to know how to protect themselves as well as how to treat others.

Talking with Teens about Sexuality will help you understand your teen’s world and give you effective strategies in the midst of cultural pressures. Drs. Robinson and Scott provide scientifically reliable and biblically based information about gender fluidity, types of intimacy, online dangers, setting boundaries, and much more. Along the way, the book provides useful conversation starters and insightful guidance.

Don’t let fear keep you from engaging in vital conversations. Learn how to talk to your teen with knowledge and confidence, guiding them toward a sexually healthy future.

- New York Times bestselling author reaches thousands of moms daily
- Crystal Paine has more than 1.5 million social media followers and an email list over 175,000
- Book helps parents find freedom from performance-based parenting

Do you worry that you're messing up your kids? Do you get stressed when you think about their futures? New York Times bestselling author Crystal Paine knows how you feel. A mom of four, Crystal has struggled with anxiety over parenting. She wanted to parent with grace, instead of a system of rules where kids are expected to do all the right things. She wanted to be a safe place for her children, and she definitely didn't want to be remembered as the sort of mom who yelled, wounded her kids with words, or worse, cared more about her reputation than her kids' hearts.

In this book, Crystal shares the life-changing lessons that God has been teaching her about raising kids with love and grace.

In Love-Centered Parenting, Crystal will

- reveal the no-fail secret to launching your kids
- uncover the root of why we often feel so frustrated and irritated with our kids
- share the four most important choices we can make as parents
- give you the tools to keep going when you want to give up
- help you get your kids to talk to you

It is possible to parent from a place of freedom and rest, giving your kids what they truly need to thrive in this world.

Bring Passion and Joy Back to Your Faith

- Author is pastor of Prestonwood Baptist, one of the largest churches in the US with 42,000 members
- Author's sermons are broadcast nationally on television and radio
- Foreword by Darryl Strawberry

Even pastors struggle to keep going sometimes. When Dr. Jack Graham had a major surgery ten years ago, he knew it would take a physical toll, but to his surprise, he also found himself wiped out emotionally and spiritually. He wrestled with depression and a lack of spiritual energy, and he struggled to find joy and growth in his walk with Christ.

Maybe you've been through a crisis of your own. Or maybe the busyness of life has overwhelmed you, or your faith has grown stale over the years and you've just been going through the motions. So how do you get back to being spiritually energized?

In Reignite, Dr. Graham shares the powerful lessons he learned during his own dark night of the soul. He shares biblical insights on how to keep your relationship with God from growing cold, how to focus on what truly matters, and how to make the most of your years on earth, creating a legacy that advances the kingdom of God.

For those who follow Jesus, God has promised a triumphant life and an eternity of joyous celebration. But we also need to embrace this joy and victory right here and right now. Let Reignite help you recapture what you've been missing.

EXCERPT

How we view ourselves is so intertwined with how we view God, we cannot separate the two. If one is off focus, they both are. Chances are, there are a few things in your soul that look a little blurry. You might have forgotten about them. But they're taunting you in ways you might not recognize.

If you look at life and all you see is pain and sorrow, I think we're dealing with a heart wrestling with doubt. If you've settled for mediocre, comfortable, and expected, I think we're dealing with a heart wrestling with doubt. If God's told us to do something and it doesn't feel possible, I think we're dealing with a heart wrestling with doubt. If you've tried all the pick-me-ups and self-help lists and motivational videos, and nothing is working, it's time to try something different.

After a two-year span of losing my mom to a brain tumor, my brother to suicide, and numerous other hard things, doubt had flooded my eyes. You could see it. I could no longer hide the doubt I had in myself and in my God. I had to figure out how to get that belief-filled girl back. And I did. I mean, she's still coming back, but she's a lot more here than not. My greatest hope is that you'll get your belief back, too. The kind of belief that changes the world, your world. One day, one decision at a time.

Bestselling Author Helps Us Truly Believe God Can Do the Impossible

- Sales of the author’s two previous books and accompanying Bible studies top 350,000 copies
- Nicki Koziarz is a two-time ECPA bestselling author and widely known speaker with Proverbs 31 Ministries, which has a total social media reach of 7.5 million
- A Bible study and 6-session DVD dive deeper into the surprisingly relevant faith-building decisions we can learn from Noah

When things don’t go as we expect or want, doubt and defeat can set in. That’s what happened to Nicki Koziarz when she faced one hopeless situation after another over a two-year span. She questioned God and she questioned herself. Do I still believe that nothing is impossible with God? As she prayed and searched for answers, one of the Bible’s most illogical accounts—the account of Noah—became a surprising source of hope and restored her belief in the God of impossible.

Combining biblical teaching, personal stories, and practical advice, Nicki will help you

- resolve your places of doubt by reviving positive patterns of thinking
- stop looking back on what happened or didn’t happen and look ahead at what is possible
- discover five small decisions that will replace doubts with a holy confidence

If doubt has convinced you to stop believing, it’s time to decide something different. This message is for the hopeless who want to find hope again and the lost who are searching for answers.

EXCERPT

God has an agenda—a kingdom agenda. He has given us the play-book for His kingdom agenda, and it is called the Bible. He has done this so that we, when executing His plays, will put His glory on display. One way this occurs is when the world looks on and sees brothers and sisters in Christ huddling together across racial, cultural, and generational lines.

But just like in a football game, the huddle is not the play. The huddle accomplishes nothing on its own. Our nation doesn't need to see any more huddles by the body of Christ. What people need to see is the church of Jesus Christ, made up of all backgrounds and cultures, accomplishing important things for the kingdom of God. This can only be accomplished when embracing oneness enables us to make God's purposes and God's agenda more important than our own individuality and preferences. What God wants is for us to live by His rules, resulting in the receiving of His blessing and power. When we as Christians, celebrating our differences, join together as the house of God representing the kingdom of God for the glory of God, we get the response of God to our presence in history.

Challenge for Men to Step Up to God's Call

- Tony Evans's books have sold more than 2 million copies over the past 8 years, with Kingdom Man selling over 300,000
- Social media includes 1.4 million Facebook followers, 188,000 Twitter followers, and an email list of over 450,000
- Dr. Evans's sermons are aired on over 1,400 radio stations Monday through Friday and are televised on TBN

God is good and powerful and wants the best for your life. He has big plans for you. You believe these things are true. But what is your own responsibility as a man when it comes to becoming all God created you to be? How can you walk in victory and faith and make an impact on others for God?

Kingdom Men Rising challenges men to foster personal discipleship and apply discipleship skills and a leadership mindset to all areas of life. Dr. Tony Evans brings his insights, stories, and wise counsel from God's Word to clear all obstacles in your path, leading you to the abundant life you've been called to live. And along the way, you'll find your heart stirred to reach for more, no longer settling for a faith that just goes through the motions. The life of King David is used as the book's foundation, and topics include overcoming temptation, restoration from sin, how to disciple others, and finally how to leave a legacy of faith and godly influence.

Replace helplessness, boredom, and regret with vibrancy, power, and joy. Let Kingdom Men Rising help you take the next step in your faith to become the powerful man of God you were made to be.

- Author is an ABC News correspondent, former host of The View, and former co-anchor of Good Morning America Weekend
- "Paula's personal story of risking it all to pursue her God-given purpose will inspire you."—Christine Caine

Too often we lean into the wrong things and burn out. We buy society's lie that our worth is our work, our value is our vocation, our calling is our career. Confusing what we do with who we are wreaks havoc on our bodies, our souls, and our relationships.

Called Out is a deeply personal book from Paula Faris, the beloved on-air reporter for ABC News and former co-host of The View. She shares her journey through burnout, public humiliation, physical breakdowns, and family struggles. Along the way, she heard God gently calling her out of that dangerous place. As she struggled to find who she was outside of what she did, she discovered her true purpose and true calling. Today, she is the host of ABC's popular podcast Journeys of Faith.

Written with passion and conviction, this book reflects on what it means to be called, how to move past the fear holding you back, and how to walk in God's path for you.
