The word empowerment brings to mind motivational rallies and the self-help section of a bookstore. The messages from stage and page tend to run along the lines of “If you believe in yourself, you can do anything!” It’s an inspiring slogan in the moment, but its energy fizzles out in the long run. It falls short of what we truly long for—to be empowered in the fullness of who we are. Through this devotional, you will learn to experience God in every part of your being: physical, mental, emotional, relational, and spiritual.

Nurture your whole self and understand that God designed you as a full, complex being be empowered by the truth of God’s Word and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Through story, Scripture, prayers, and reflection questions, this devotional will help you cultivate each area of your life to live fully as God created you to be.

Practical Ways to Prepare Your Kids for Life on Their Own

- The Cathermans' total book sales are over 450,000 copies
- Helps parents ensure their children have all they need to become independent adults
- Includes practical tips for teaching kids the essentials for real-world "adulting"

What is the difference between the kid who struggles to "adult" and the one who jumps in feet first, ready to thrive? It all comes down to mindsets, skillsets, and toolsets. Either we as parents raise kids who are dependent on us or we raise kids who are confident, capable, and eager to take on the challenges of an independent adult life.

In Raising Them Ready, parenting experts and bestselling authors Jonathan and Erica Catherman give you practical ways to prepare your kids for life on their own. They help you assess how your kids respond to the everyday demands of life, provide practices for redirecting them from seeing adulthood as a series of threats to anticipating exciting challenges, and give you an inventory of the real-world adulting mindsets, skillsets, and toolsets your kids should acquire before leaving the nest.

By putting into practice the advice in this book, you can stop worrying about if your kids will make it on their own and start celebrating alongside them this adventure called life.

- Anxiety is the most common mental health issue for children and adolescents, yet only about half of those who suffer receive treatment
- Author is a licensed therapist and a frequent blogger and radio guest
- Based on solid, research-driven best practices for treating anxiety in children and teenagers

According to the American Psychological Association, today's children and teenagers are anxious about many things. To top it off, recent global events and resulting restrictions have added significant stress even as they have stripped away support systems.

For parents, teachers, counselors, and youth leaders longing to understand and help the young people in their lives, When Anxiety Roars unpacks the biological, psychological, social, and spiritual factors that influence anxiety in children and offers specific practical steps to take together to tame that anxiety. Integrating faith with best practices to reduce anxiety, it also teaches coping skills that will help children live more confidently today and into the future.

Reflecting on these difficult times in his own story, Chris shares his hard-won countercultural perspective on pain, offering practical tips to inspire those of us who feel disqualified or discouraged by our circumstances.

A Devotional for Women Longing for Life to the Full

- 12-week daily devotional designed to give women a deeper experience of Scripture
- Author's first book was a finalist for the ECPA Christian Book Award and was included on Focus on the Family's list of Top Ten Picture Books

Lots of devotionals offer short readings for busy women. Rarely do they dive deep enough into God's Word to stick with you and make a real difference in your day, let alone your life.

Thirsty isn't like other devotionals. Rather than breeze past a snippet of Scripture and a loosely related anecdote each day, this unique devotional focuses your attention on one short passage of Scripture for an entire week, encouraging you to memorize, understand, and apply its truth to your life. After 12 weeks of these rich, deep dives into God's Word, you'll find your soul restored and your life changed.

If you long for a closer relationship with God despite your packed schedule, discover how you can drink deeply from the well of Scripture in just 20 minutes a day.

You know her. Maybe you are her. The Most Put-Together Woman in the Room. Make no mistake, she never feels the most put-together. And she doesn't do it to make anyone else feel small. She walks in without a hair out of place, always delivering an A+ performance and relentlessly hard on herself, because she feels like that is the minimum standard she has to achieve just to be welcome in most rooms. Just to be invited to most tables. You would never know by looking at her the hard things she's had to overcome in her life. She succeeds, almost compulsively, in this urgent attempt to outrun her own muddy story. But she is walking around now, reduced to this burned-out, brittle, fragile, ashes-to-ashes version of herself. She is, at last, exhausted.

When gold stars, highlight reels, and seeking approval from strangers are not enough, Mary Marantz assures you that you're already worthy and gives you permission to stop running. In this powerful, life-giving devotional filled with stunning photography and design, she shows you how to move from achieving, striving, and performing for your worth to the grace, freedom, and purpose that come from knowing that your identity and calling are determined by God.

You are not in a race with anyone. Good things take time. And slow growth equals strong roots.
