Dr. Robert Jeffress

Strengthen Your Faith and Stand Strong against False Teachings

- Pathway to Victory with Dr. Robert Jeffress is the most watched program on TBN

We live in a time when believing in anything or nothing is considered equally "truthful." Many people don't identify with a specific religion, preferring to think of themselves as "spiritual" to avoid seeming intolerant of other beliefs. This has led to some squishy ideas about right and wrong, as well as false teachings infiltrating our churches.

More than ever, we must stand firm on the clear teaching of God's Word. In What Every Christian Should Know, Dr. Robert Jeffress equips you to understand ten core doctrines of Christianity so you can be confident that your faith is built on solid ground and stand strong against false teaching. Each chapter illuminates a core belief of the Christian faith, such as God's Word, the Trinity, angels and demons, sin, salvation, future things, and more.

Nothing is more hopeful and beneficial in our trying times than good theology. With vivid illustrations, clear explanations, and practical applications for believers today, this book will help you ground your faith in capital T truth.

Chuck Mingo and Troy Jackson with Holly Crawshaw

Moving from Fearful Avoidance of Racial Issues to Brave Investment in Actionable Change

- Authors and Crossroads Church have a social media reach of over 1.5 million
- Offers practical ways for Jesus followers to courageously confront racism

As the church and as a country, we've often neglected and avoided addressing the impact and ongoing reality of racism. We need to lead the way to true racial healing, solidarity, and justice. And we need two things to do it: courage and love.

Through enlightening history and eye-opening personal stories, Living Undivided will equip and empower you with the biblical, transformative tools you need to move from just hoping and wishing for racial justice to actionable change that makes an observable difference in your life and the lives of churches, neighborhoods, and cities.

In this season of division and injustice, this book opens up a clear path to a better future.

ORPHANED BELIEVERS

How a Generation of Christian Exiles Can Find the Way Home

Sara Billups

Belonging for the Estranged, Exiled, and Homesick

- Author has written for the New York Times, Christianity Today, Ekstasis, and more
- Will appeal to readers of Kristin Kobes Du Mez, Beth Allison Barr, and Russell Moore
- Examines the ongoing impact of the evangelical culture wars of the '80s and '90s

In the wake of the culture wars of the 1980s and 1990s, many young evangelical Christians found themselves untethered, disillusioned, and--ultimately--orphaned as they grappled with the legalistic, politically co-opted churches of their youth and embarked on a search for a more loving, more biblical expression of the faith and discipleship taught by Jesus.

Sara Billups was one of those orphans. She knows the grief of loving Jesus while watching political pundits twist her faith to support their power struggles and exclusionary policies. She knows the feeling of being alone, misunderstood, and maligned. In this honest yet hopeful book, she invites fellow orphaned believers to process their pasts so they can move boldly forward into a future where they know without a doubt that they are beloved by Christ and belong to the family of God. With love and compassion, she binds up the wounds of the broken and points them toward a new expression of faith that is motivated to make the world a better place.

Discovering God's Abundant Grace for Women Struggling with Pornography and Sexual Shame

Jessica Harris

Grace-Filled Hope for Women Struggling with Lust and Pornography

- Author has been featured on The 700 Club, ABC's Nightline, and CBN
- "With audacious honesty and raw emotion, Jessica shows how Jesus meets us in the messiness of our lives."--Sam Black, director of recovery education, Covenant Eyes
- Meets an underserved need for resources for Christian women struggling with lust and pornography

Lust is a man's problem, right? Wrong. When we see lust as an exclusively male issue, it leaves Christian women with nowhere to turn when they struggle with the same things. They suffer silently and feel like they will never be free.

Jessica Harris has been there, and she has made it her mission to break the silence, banish the shame, and bring women's struggles into the light of God's grace and forgiveness. She understands that when you suffer in silence, you are building a wall of shame between yourself and God that God does not desire for you. In this authentic and honest book, she shows women a road map for restoration that answers the question "Is there grace left for me?" with a resounding and emphatic "Yes!"

For any woman who desires to escape the pull of lust, pornography, and sexual shame, this book is a refreshing drink of water that will quench the fire within and point the way toward freedom.

TIME

The Untold Story of the Love That Held Us Together When Incarceration Kept Us Apart
Fox and Rob Richardson

An Epic Story of Enduring Love and Unshakable Faith

- The true, full story behind the Academy Award-nominated documentary TIME
- Authors' story has been featured in the New York Times, Rolling Stone, the Wall Street Journal, The Atlantic, and many others
- Authors speak frequently to a variety of audiences as advocates for incarcerated families and stronger marriages

Fox and Rob have a family motto: "If it's not facing 297 years in prison, it's not a problem."

The 21 years that kept Rob apart from Fox and their family of six sons was long enough. And it was love that carried them through two decades of uncertainty as Rob survived America's bloodiest penitentiary at Angola and Fox raised their sons solo, all the while fighting for their father's freedom and their futures against the statistical odds.

The Academy Award-nominated documentary TIME introduced audiences to Fox and Rob, who riveted audiences with their relentless fight for each other and justice, despite America's broken prison system. This book tells the rest of their story. In alternating voices and intimate detail, Fox and Rob reveal what the film does not--how a person can cultivate the radical love needed to see them through any hardship and the miracles that can happen on the way.

As they peel back the layers of their unforgettable love story, you'll discover the secrets of perseverance and the power of a resilience that is founded on faith in a God who never gives up on us.

WHY DO I DO WHAT I DON'T WANT TO DO?

Replace Deadly Vices with Life-Giving Virtues

Jonathan "JP" Pokluda with Jon Green

Nine Practices for Overcoming Your Bad Habits

- Author's books have sold over 140,000 copies
- Author's social media following is over 100,000
- Author is lead pastor at Harris Creek in Waco and former campus pastor at Watermark Church and leader of The Porch

We live in an upside-down culture. We wink at our vices as coping strategies while restricting our virtues to our online personas, where they won't interfere with our real lives. And we wonder why we feel empty, exhausted, and directionless. But why do we do things that we know are harmful for us?

Jonathan "JP" Pokluda wants you to know there's a better, more fulfilling way to live, and it doesn't involve looking inside yourself for the answers--because that's not where you'll find them. With his signature wit and wisdom, he explains, unpacks, and expands on the age-old virtues we're told to pursue in Scripture: humility, forgiveness, generosity, diligence, self-control, authenticity, rest, and optimism. Far from being restrictive, these God-given goals for living free us to love and live as we wish we would.

Practicing virtues is not just something you do--it's something done in you, slowly but surely transforming you into the person you were meant to be all along. Whether you're 18 or 80, it's never too late to redefine what's important to you and reclaim a life of virtue.

SO MANY LIONS, SO FEW DANIELS

Living without Compromise in a World in Need of Truth

Ray Comfort

How to Live Boldly for Christ in the Midst of Adversity

- Author's books have sold more than 3 million copies

- Author is cohost of the TV program The Way of the Master, which airs worldwide in over 190 countries

Like Daniel in Babylon, Christians today are exiles in a hostile culture. Yet we are called to obey God rather than man, and we need courage to do it.

Award-winning apologist Ray Comfort wants to help you develop the fortitude to look into the mouths of lions without flinching, trusting that God will not only bring you to the other side of the trial but that he is refining you through it. This encouraging and practical book draws on inspiring stories from Scripture to help you identify the lions you face and build a strategy for combatting them, recognizing that nothing catches God off guard and reminding you that, by his power, you have victory over the darkness.

For any Christian who is feeling beaten down, burned out, or ready to give in, this book offers a spiritual shot in the arm.

LISTEN TO YOUR DAY

The Life-Changing Practice of Paying Attention

Paul Angone

What the Smallest Details of Your Day Teach You about Life's Biggest Decisions

- Author's previous books have sold over 150,000 copies
- Author is a frequent contributor to Bloomberg, Chicago Tribune, Insider, HuffPost, and Relevant Magazine
- Learn how to find answers to life's big questions by paying attention to the details of your day

What are you supposed to do with your life? What deserves your limited reserve of energy, attention, and time? What's making you anxious or frustrated right now? What would make you happy and fulfilled?

The world is shouting its answers to these questions, but the real answers are quieter--and right in front of you. They are in the details of your day, every day. But we usually look right past them. Or we are simply so distracted we've lost the ability to see and hear the life going on right in front of us. If we're not intentional about changing this trend, this "inattentional blindness" can rob us of years of joyful productivity. But when we learn to observe the details of our days, we discover new lenses through which to see and new practices of paying attention that add meaning to life.

Stop drifting. Stop worrying. Stop living distracted. Walk purposefully through life with a firm grasp on what's important to you and what you're working toward--all by listening to the details of your day.

Raising Girls to Resist Tricky Teachings and Reclaim a Bigger Faith

- The Great Sex Rescue sold nearly 50,000 copies in its first year
- Authors have a social media following of over 150,000 and an email list of 46,000

What if the goal of raising a Christian girl was about more than keeping her virginity intact? What if it was about raising a strong, independent young woman who knows who she is, uses her voice, and confidently steps into the life God has for her?

From the authors of The Great Sex Rescue comes this evidence-based book grounded on surveys of over 28,000 women to offer moms a fresh, freeing, and biblically grounded message of sexuality and self-worth for their daughters that is less about the don'ts and more about the dos.

This isn't your average parenting book: no pat answers or overly broad principles here. No cliché prescriptives or toxic teachings that your daughter will have to unpack and recover from as an adult, like so many of us have. Instead, you'll find data-driven insights about how to raise a woman who is resilient, knows her strength, and has the discernment skills needed to make good choices. By reframing (and sometimes replacing) common evangelical messages to teen girls, this book will equip you to raise a girl who can navigate the difficult waters of growing up while still clinging tight to the God who created her on purpose, for a purpose.

THE TOXIC WAR ON MASCULINITY

How Christianity Reconciles the Sexes

Nancy R. Pearcey

- Love Thy Body has sold over 65,000 copies
- Pearcey has appeared on media outlets such as C-SPAN, NPR, The Mike Huckabee Show, Fox & Friends, and Focus on the Family
- Author's work has appeared in the publications such as the Washington Post, the Washington Times, First Things, Christianity Today, and World

"Why Can't We Hate Men?" asks a headline in the Washington Post. A trendy hashtag is #KillAllMen. Books are sold titled I Hate Men, The End of Men, and Are Men Necessary? How did the idea arise that masculinity is dangerous and destructive? Bestselling author Nancy Pearcey leads you on a fascinating excursion through American history to discover why the script for masculinity turned toxic--and how to fix it.

Pearcey explains how religion is often cast as a cause of domestic abuse. But research shows that authentically committed Christian men test out as the most loving and engaged husbands and fathers. They have the lowest rates of divorce and domestic violence of any group in America.

Yes, domestic abuse is an urgent issue, and Pearcey does not mince words in addressing it. But the sociological facts explode the negative stereotypes and show that Christianity has the power to overcome toxic behavior in men and reconcile the sexes--an unexpected finding that has stood up to rigorous empirical testing.
