

A Woman's Guide to Sharing Her Faith While Making New Friends

- A practical book demonstrating how women can use their gifts and abilities close to home
- Author is the founder of The Neighborhood Café Bible Study ministry and website
- Includes easily implemented ideas and instructions for fulfilling the command to love others as ourselves

Many women are comfortable hanging out at church but also long for a spiritual connection to their community. Amy Lively shows you how to love those strangers next door even when you're fearful. She writes from her experience, saying, "I've knocked on hundreds of doors. Every time I invite my neighbors for coffee I learn something new." This book is a candid compilation of her mistakes (yes) and gives God the glory for successes.

You'll find hands-on tools and ideas that will help you share the Gospel, explore how to use social media to form real-life relationships, and give you the courage to take the first step of faith to reach out to that neighbor whose name you don't yet know.

Finding Joy in Reading God’s Word

- Perfect for those who feel they should read the Bible, but rarely enjoy it
- Author has full-time ministry speaking to churches on this topic
- Strong endorsement from bestselling author Gary Thomas

When it comes to the Bible, most of us talk about two things: Is it true? And how should it impact our lives? But you may be missing something vitally important: Do you like the Bible? If you don't, consistency will always be a struggle, and the Bible will be less likely to transform you.

Keith Ferrin has been talking to churches about enjoying the Bible for years, and now he's compiled his most helpful tips. Written in a friendly, conversational tone, Ferrin teaches you how to develop a relational mindset and to approach the Bible in a way that lines up with the way your brain learns best. How to Enjoy Reading Your Bible will help you genuinely love the Bible more, read it more consistently, and apply God's Word to your everyday life.

Compelling Memoir of a Broken Life Restored by God's Grace

Now in paper

- Sarah Jakes shares her inspiring story from being lost and hurting to fully embracing her faith and purpose
- “This is the gushing geyser of truth that may very well ignite your dreams to flourish as you encounter what God does with a child whose parents’ prayers are answered in her response to his sovereign call.”—Bishop T. D. Jakes
- Shows women how they too can find wholeness in Christ

Like every girl, Sarah Jakes dreamed of a life full of love, laughter, and happy endings. But her dreams changed dramatically when she became pregnant at age thirteen, a reality only compounded by the fact that her father, Bishop T.D. Jakes, was one of the most influential megachurch pastors in the nation. As a teen mom and a high-profile preacher’s kid, her road was lonely. She was shunned at school, gossiped about at church. And a few years later, when a fairy-tale marriage ended in a spiral of hurt and rejection, she could have let her pain dictate her future.

Instead, she found herself surrounded by a God she’d given up on, crashing headlong with him into a destiny she’d never dreamed of. Sarah’s captivating story, unflinchingly honest and deeply vulnerable, is a vivid reminder that God can turn even the deepest pain into his perfection.

Popular Speaker Reveals that Every Trial Is an Opportunity

- Author has a strong speaking/teaching ministry through FamilyLife and other organizations
- A former NFL quarterback, author is well connected in the sports world
- Great gift for women to give to the men in their lives
- Foreword by Tony Dungy

In football, a blitz is an all-out attack, aiming to force the quarterback into a mistake and create mayhem and destruction. But by its nature, the blitz also creates an opportunity for the quarterback, as it leaves holes in the defense. What looks like the worst play can become the best play.

During a life “blitz,” when everything seems like it’s collapsing—financially, relationally, spiritually, or physically—if you take initiative you can do more than just survive. You can grow, succeed, and advance. In Facing the Blitz Jeff shares lessons he’s learned through all kinds of life blitzes, both personal and professional. He teaches how life is about transformation and being others-oriented, and how having the right mindset can turn unnecessary fear and misery into courage, growth, and joy. Includes end-of-chapter questions for assessment and application.

EXCERPT

Though God calls us to live full, abundant lives, he doesn't run us ragged or ask us to grind our gears to the point of breakdown. We can trust him to know what's best for us. If we don't practice a measure of restraint when it comes to all of our time commitments, if we don't say no to continual and perpetual busyness, we'll say yes to it by default. Our human nature and our culture are powerful forces that compel us to commit to more than God asks of us. At some point, we have to humbly embrace this truth about ourselves: We all have our limits.

When we run ourselves ragged doing too many things—most of which God never asked us to do—we leave unattended the sacred areas of our lives (intimacy with God, rich relationships with others, physical and spiritual health, etc.). The result? We miss out on the best of what God has for us.

Life is a gift. Time is a treasured commodity. When we open our hands and give what we have to Jesus—be it our gifts, our time, or simply room and space for him to show up—we find life to be a sacred journey.

Jesus invites us to live purposeful and passionate, focused and free. It's time to grab hold of our moments and cherish our days the way Jesus cherishes us.

Popular Author & Speaker Equips Women to Live Focused and Free

- Practical, liberating help for women worn out from ought-tos and should-dos
- Larson is a nationally known radio host, speaker, and author of nine books
- Discussion questions and companion DVD make this ideal for group studies
- DVD includes six new 30-minute teaching sessions

Women today are stretched thin, worn weary, and tired of living hurried lives. And nothing drains us more than signing up for things God never asked us to do, even if they are well-intentioned. Yet, all too often that's exactly where we lose our way.

In Your Sacred Yes, Susie Larson shares personal stories and biblical insights to help you:

- Learn how—and when—to say no without guilt or shame
- Say yes to life-giving, not life-draining, activities
- Find joy and abundance, fulfillment and freedom, each day

When we can't, or won't, say no, we become captive to our commitments instead of free to respond to God's invitations. Here is your chance to say no to others' obligations and yes to the One who will rejuvenate your weary soul. Will you say yes?

"Pastor Jack Graham presents a tactical manual every Christ-follower needs for winning the spiritual conflict with unseen forces of evil." —Kerry Shook, founding pastor, Woodlands Church

"There is a spiritual realm. It is real. I'm thankful that Jack Graham has given us a peek behind the curtain." —Pastor Dave Stone, Southeast Christian Church, Louisville, KY

Leading Baptist Pastor Teaches the Truth about Angels

- Author's church, Prestonwood Baptist, has over 30,000 members
- Dr. Graham hosts a weekly show on TBN and Daystar and has a national radio program
- Written with the evangelical Christian in mind, and filled with gripping true stories from credible sources

Popular myths about angels are all around us. Do people become angels when they die? Are they always hovering nearby, on guard to protect us from danger? Can we talk to them? Many of our ideas about angels come from TV and movies, both of which are more interested in ratings and ticket sales than in truth. As Christians it's important to understand what angels really are.

Pastor Jack Graham walks readers through Scripture to show what we know about angels and their roles as worshipers of the Lord, witnesses to his glory, and warriors fighting on his behalf. But this book focuses on application as well as knowledge. Not only will it separate fact from fiction, but it will also encourage you to become a better worshiper, warrior, and witness in your own right.

Includes end-of-chapter questions. A small-group curriculum DVD will also be available.

EXCERPT

One night I sat rocking our inconsolable baby girl while searing pain shot through her left ear. Between the prolonged unemployment, a hefty mortgage, and unpaid bills, this mama's heart just couldn't take any more. When it came to my own pain I could tolerate almost anything, but I couldn't watch my writhing daughter; that just broke my heart.

Laying my screaming baby girl in her crib, I shot a frantic prayer into the air on my way to the medicine cabinet for Tylenol. "Jesus, if you're really here, if you're really listening, please help us! Her pain isn't fair and we simply can't afford a doctor's visit. Please help!"

Armed with a dropper of cherry-flavored relief, I stopped outside the nursery door. Rather than screams and tears, I heard coos and gibbering, then laughing and jumping.

"He fixed it, Mommy!" She beamed, jumping up and down in her crib.

"Who fixed what?" I asked.

"My ear. He fixed my ear!" she repeated in her toddler language, pointing to her bookcase lined with stuffed animals and dolls.

Still treating the idea of a miracle coolly, I played along. "Does this man have big wings? Is he an angel? Did an angel fix your ear?"

"No, Mommy. He fixed my ear."

One of her board books, Jesus and the Children, caught my eye. It was her favorite bedtime story, and we must have read it to her hundreds of times, including that night.

Holding it up, I turned to the picture of Jesus playing leapfrog with the children and dared ask, "Did he fix your ear? Did Jesus touch your ear?"

"Yes."

"Jesus fixed your ear? He did?"

"Yes."

I choked back tears and whispered one more question: "Is Jesus still here?"

"Yes," she replied calmly and pointed over my shoulder.

Remarkable True Stories of Jesus's Supernatural Presence

- Ordinary people share life-changing experiences of Jesus
- Amazing accounts that will strengthen faith and encourage readers to pursue Jesus more
- From the compiler of the bestselling Angels, Miracles, and Heavenly Encounters

In this new collection, people who have seen Jesus, heard his voice, or had him intervene miraculously in their lives share their fascinating stories. Readers will be inspired as they see Jesus at work in a variety of circumstances, many of which are similar to their own. Though Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever, these accounts will show how he loves each person individually and manifests himself to each one in a unique and special way. Readers longing for more of Jesus will be drawn closer to the God who is intimately involved and cares about every detail in our lives.

Assurance of God’s Personal Love for Us

- Speaks to a strong felt need—knowing God loves us as individuals
- Endorsements from Steven Furtick, Matt Chandler, and Lecrae
- Author is a leader in Acts 29 Network and host of its Cultural Theology podcast

The startling truth about the love of God has lost its potency. It is not a passionless, theological idea. It is a real love that feels and even suffers. Whether you grew up in a Christian home and have forgotten this essential truth, or you never knew it in the first place, we all need to be reminded—and assured—that God’s love is real and personal.

The Reckless Love of God is about pulling readers in close and asking if they have really considered what it means to say, “Jesus loves you.”

Nothing changes lives and grows the church faster, more effectively, and more thoroughly than being captivated by this reality. But the love of Jesus is not just a means to another end. Receiving the love of Jesus is the end itself.

Includes end-of-chapter questions for individual or group use.
