BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

Internationally Acclaimed Singer/Songwriter Shows How to Leave a Living Legacy

The Art of Mentoring
Embracing the Great Generational Transition
by Darlene Zschech
Foreword by Jack W. Hayford

Tension between older and younger generations has always existed—especially in the church. We have struggled with this for years, building up resentments and crippling those on both sides of the fence. We resist the thought that emerging and established leaders can, and must, work together.

But these are critical days, and the church needs large-hearted leadership willing to move beyond personal struggles and emotional triggers for the sake of others. It needs passionate, relational leaders, willing to mentor and be mentored, to give a thriving, living legacy to future generations.

Can it be done? “Absolutely,” says internationally acclaimed leader Darlene Zschech. “You can become for others what you did not have so that the generation following you will have your faith stories to lean on and your blessing to pass along.”

Readers can join Darlene for a journey into the heart of mentoring to see how intergenerational leadership radically impacts the kingdom in ways that could never be done alone.

“As passionate about empowering the next generation as she is about leading hers, Darlene Zschech is possibly the most amazing mentor I know... [She] continues to raise up in her wake some of the most influential, inspiring, and imaginative leaders on the face of the planet.”
—Louie Giglio, The Passion Movement/Passion City Church
