The Essential Guide to Healing
Equipping All Christians to Pray for the Sick
by Bill Johnson and Randy Clark

1. Bill, you say that the message of salvation often preached in our country is not complete. What is missing?
2. In The Essential Guide to Healing, you say “Jesus reflected perfect theology.” Please explain.
3. Can you briefly share a few of the key milestones in your life that brought you into the ministry of healing?
4. Bill, you write, “I wish we would realize how born again we actually are.” Please expand on that.
5. You encourage readers to develop a culture of faith in themselves and their church by specifically and passionately crying out to God, among other things. How do you maintain your passion in prayer?
6. What is the role of biblical impartation in developing our faith and enabling us to live a kingdom lifestyle?
7. To illustrate the power of testimony, which you teach on in the book, please share the testimony about the mother of the two-year-old girl who couldn’t run since her feet were turned inward (p.166).
8. Bill, you warn your readers to make sure “we do not turn people who need a miracle into our projects.” How do we keep the focus on God’s love and compassion for them?
9. I’m sure many people listening now have often prayed for someone but not seen them healed. How would you encourage them?
