A Pilot's Compelling Account of Heaven—in the Tradition of 90 Minutes in Heaven

Flight to Heaven
by Capt. Dale Black

Minneapolis, MN—Captain Dale Black has flown all over the world, but only one flight changed his life forever: His flight to heaven.

As the only survivor of a crash deemed non-survivable by the Federal Aviation Administration, Capt. Black was almost unrecognizable to his family. For three days his body hovered inches away from death. Yet it was when he was almost dead to the world that his spirit experienced a breathtaking glimpse of life in heaven.

What he saw, heard, and learned there continues to ripple through his life and touch others—and now for the first time, he's sharing his story with the world. With warmth and transparency he tells all, from the horrific crash to his miraculous recovery to the awesome splendors he experienced in heaven to the inspiring changes in his life.

In the tradition of 90 Minutes in Heaven, Flight to Heaven will rivet and inspire as well as bring hope and encouragement for those dealing with serious injuries or the loss of a loved one, and those looking for assurance about this life and the next.

“Dale Black’s near-death experience took my breath away. [It’s] a spiritually rich reflection on the enormous love God has for His children and the lengths to which He will go to bring them safely home.”
—Trudy Harris, author of Glimpses of Heaven

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Capt. Dale Black is a retired airline pilot who dedicated his career to improving aviation safety. He has flown for over 40 years with more than 17,000 hours in a variety of commercial jets. Dale is still an active aviator and is co-owner of a real estate company. He has also been a Bible teacher, a television and radio show host, evangelist, and volunteer missionary pilot in over 50 countries. Dale and his wife, Paula, are parents of two grown children and live in Southern California.
