Love and Laughter Abound in New Series From Mary Connealy

Mary Connealy, bestselling author of THE KINCAID BRIDES series, is known for her historical romantic comedies full of cowboys and adventure. Her unique writing style has won over critics and readers alike—with sales exceeding half a million copies. Connealy employs this winning combination of love and laughs in Swept Away, the debut of this new series. When a cowboy focused on revenge encounters a woman determined to distract him, there's going to be trouble in Texas!

Swept away when her wagon train attempts a difficult river crossing, Ruthy MacNeil isn't terribly upset at being separated from the family who raised her. All they've ever done is work her to the bone. Alive but disoriented, she's rescued by Luke Stone... so unfortunately, there are more chances to die in her immediate future.

Luke is on a mission to reclaim the ranch stolen from his family. But the men currently on the property won't let it go without a fight. Luke plans to meet up with friends who will help him take back the land, and since he can't just leave Ruthy in the middle of nowhere, she's going to have to go with him.

But the more time Luke spends around the hardworking young woman, the more he finds himself thinking of things besides revenge. Will Ruthy convince him to give up his destructive path and be swept away by love?
